AND

Any end-user - natural or legal person – downloading and/or using the software subject to this license within the strict frame of its academical / scientific researches, without any commercial objective, hereinafter referred to as the "Licensee",

The Licensor and the Licensee are individually referred to as the "Party" and collectively referred to as the "Parties".

PREAMBLE

GlycoDENSITY is a software designed to rank ensembles of glycan conformers (and by extension protein and protein post-translational modification conformers) based on agreement with experimental structural density maps in order to refine and generate more complete models of protein structure.

Inserm Transfert has been appointed to represent the Co-rights holders in their actions to protect the GlycoDENSITY software and carry out the associated formalities.

Inserm Transfert has therefore registered, on behalf of the Co-rights holders, (i) the patent associated with the device of which GlycoDENSITY is a part and (ii) registered the code of the GlycoDENSITY software with the French "Agency for the Protection of Programs" (APP).

On behalf of the Co-right holders, Inserm Transfert makes the GlycoDENSITY software available to any user wishing to use it for strictly academic research purposes, without any commercial objectives.

This license agreement is intended to govern the terms and conditions of the GlycoDENSITY software license to which all users are subject, within the framework of the above-mentioned purposes. Any other use is strictly forbidden by the present license and requires a specific agreement with Inserm Transfert.

Any person intending to use the GlycoDENSITY software must first read the present agreement.

Any downloading and/or use of the GlycoDENSITY software acknowledges acceptance of and compliance with these license conditions.

ARTICLE 1 – DEFINITIONS

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the terms starting with a capital letter are defined as follows, it being understood that words in plural may be understood in singular and vice versa.

- "Agreement": the present document, governing the relationship between the Parties with regard to the Software. The Preamble is part of the Agreement.
- "Code": Source code and/or Object code.
- "Contribution(s)": any work made by a Licensee that includes or is based on the Software in a manner that permission of the Licensor is needed for use or disclosure of such work.
- "Contributors": any Licensee releasing a Contribution.
- "License": the present terms and conditions for the use and reproduction of the Software.
- "Non-Commercial Research": use for research purposes only and not for the purpose of obtaining, directly or indirectly, any commercial advantage or financial compensation.

The following acts are not considered Non-Commercial Research notably and are not allowed under the License:

- use in clinical trials,
- use for diagnostic and therapeutic purposes,

Ref Inserm Transfert :

- use for rendering a research service for a fee, even if the said fee is merely reimbursement of the costs of rendering the service,
 - use in projects and collaborative research with for-profit organizations,
 - use in a product or as part of a product to be sold,
 - use for developing, creating and marketing or improving a product or process for commercial and/or industrial purposes,
 - file a patent covering the Software in order to generate a revenue.
- "Object code" or the "Binary code": shall mean the binary files originating from the compilation of the Source Code.
 - "Patent": patent application EP23307151.3 filed December 06th 2023, title : "Improvement of the structural elucidation of macromolecules by weighting conformer ensembles based on agreement with experimental density maps" and any foreign patent application corresponding thereto, and any divisional, additions, continuations, continuations in part, or re-examination application, and each patent that issues or reissues from any of these patent applications.
 - "Software": the GlycoDENSITY software, including the Object Code, the Source Code, any Code generated by deep-learning processing, the user interface, the graphical interface, the libraries and the related documentation ("Documentation").
 - "Source Code": all the Software's instructions and program lines to which access is required so as to modify the Software.
 - "Territory": worldwide.

ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE

The purpose of this License is to set out the terms and conditions under which the Licensor grants any Licensee a License to use the Software, for performing Non-Commercial Research only.

Should the Licensee wish to obtain further rights on the Software (other than for performing Non-Commercial Research), it may contact Inserm Transfert at the address set out in Article "Contacts" hereunder to discuss the possible execution of a specific license agreement.

ARTICLE 3 – SCOPE OF RIGHTS GRANTED

3.1 Property of the Software and the Patent

The Software and the Patent are the sole property of the Co-right holders.

3.2. Software - Rights of use

For the duration of the Agreement, the Licensor grants to the Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide, free of charge and non-sublicensable license to :

Ref Inserm Transfert :

- use the Software;
- reproduce, permanently or temporarily, the Software in order to load, display, run, transmit or store the Software on any media and by any means;
- study the Software,
- modify, adapt and arrange the Software, generating Contributions.

These rights are only granted to the Licensee in order to perform Non-Commercial Research.

In its use of the Software, the Licensee commits to maintain any notice or proprietary mark reminding the property of the Software and the Co-rights holders.

For the avoidance of doubt, under this License, the Licensee is not allowed, without prior written agreement to the conditions with Inserm Transfert, to use the Software or parts thereof to create an own comparable control software or to integrate the Software or parts thereof into own comparable control software.

3.3 Patents – no rights

The method that is implemented by the Software is protected by the Patent.

For the avoidance of doubt, the License does not give any rights on the Patent owned by the Co-rights holders.

ARTICLE 4. DISTRIBUTION

The Licensee is not authorized to distribute copies of the Software in Source Code or Object Code form.

When the Licensee creates a Contribution, it shall contact the Licensor (addresses provided in article "Contacts" hereunder) in order to determine whether and under which conditions such Contribution may be distributed.

ARTICLE 5. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Licensee undertakes to keep secret and confidential all information, of whatever nature, relating to the Software and/or the Licensor to which it may have access through the performance of this Agreement, notably when contacting the Licensor for specific queries or requests on the basis of this Agreement.

Information already available in the public domain, disclosed to the public by the Licensor or developed by the Licensee without breach of this Agreement is not concerned by this article.

ARTICLE 6. NAMES OF THE AUTHORS / TRADEMARKS

This License does not grant the Licensee permission to use the names, trademarks, service marks, or product names of the Licensor, except as required for reasonable and customary use in describing the origin of the Software and reproducing the content of this License, README and Notice files.

Ref Inserm Transfert :

ARTICLE 7. NO WARRANTIES

Unless required by applicable law or agreed to in writing, the Licensor provides the Software on an "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of title, non-infringement, or fitness for a particular purpose.

Any Licensee is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using the Software, and assumes any risk associated with the said use and redistribution.

In no event and under no legal theory, whether in tort (including negligence), contract, or otherwise, unless required by applicable law (such as deliberate and grossly negligent acts), or agreed to in writing, shall the Licensor be liable to any Licensee for damages, including any direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages of any character arising as a result of this License or out of the use or inability to use the Software (including but not limited to damages for loss of goodwill, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction), even if the Licensor has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

ARTICLE 8. LIABILITY

Any use of the Software by the Licensee that exceeds the scope of the granted rights or that violate any term of the Agreement constitutes a breach of the Licensee.

This may immediately and automatically terminate the Agreement, without prejudice to any damages and interest that may be claimed by the Licensor, as indemnification.

ARTICLE 9. DURATION AND TERMINATION

The License enters into force when the Licensee downloads the Software and where applicable, when using the Software.

The License shall terminate at the same time the copyrights related to the Software terminate.

However, in the event of a breach by the Licensee of its obligations herein described, the rights granted to the Licensee will automatically terminate. Termination shall not release the Parties from any obligations arising from this Agreement prior to the date of effectiveness of the termination.

Regardless of the reason of the termination of the Agreement, the Licensee shall erase the Software from all of its digital equipment immediately and cease to use it without delay.

Any obligation that, by its nature or by its identification, is intended to last beyond the termination of the Agreement, will survive its term.

ARTICLE 10. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The License is governed by French law. Should a difficulty or dispute arise in connection with the License, the Parties agree to first seek an amicable solution between them.

If the Parties are unable to find an amicable solution within two (2) months as from the occurrence any dispute, and unless emergency proceedings are necessary, the
